Expectations of Members

- We should view our members as a group of people with a shared interest and goal.
- We need to care for them. Some small ways to do that would be:
 - Send a card for birthday, sickness, accident or death
 - Visit in the hospital
 - Make a phone call when you notice they've missed a meeting
- Volunteer for committee chair or committee member, but most importantly get involved!

Recruitment of Members

- Always have your "elevator speech" ready!
- Invite fellow administrative professionals to chapter meetings
- Make sure you introduce them to all the members when they visit
- Encourage guest participation in table conversation
- IAAP literature is available to share with prospective members
- Inform membership committee/chair of current level of interest of guest in joining chapter for follow-up
